

Tennessee Academic WorldQuest 2018-19

Registration Form

Description:

Academic WorldQuest is the flagship youth education program of the Tennessee World Affairs Council and the national network of World Affairs Councils. It is a team competition that tests high school students' knowledge of international affairs. Four-person teams compete by answering multiple-choice and fill-in the blank questions which are divided into ten categories. Categories include current affairs, world leaders, geography, recent history, flags, international organizations, countries, regions, the world economy, culture and more. The format is 100 questions, 10 rounds of 10 questions per round. The winning team is the team with the highest number of correct answers.

Practice Round: December 2, 2018 (Deadline to apply is November 10, 2018).

Championship Round: February 24, 2019 (Deadline to apply is January 31, 2019).

Location: The practice round will be held at Knowledge Academies, 5320 Hickory Hollow Pkwy, Antioch, TN, and the Championship Round at Belmont University.

A team is not required to participate in the practice round in order to compete in the Championship round. However, it is recommended that if a team can participate in the practice round that they do.

Also, the team that wins AWQ must take that team's participants to the National Competition. No player will be added who did not compete in the TN Championship.

Cost: $80 for one team. $40 for each additional team from the same high school.
